Overview

Why does Albania need to import energy?

Changing weather patterns over the years have forced the country to import energy to cover domestic needs, as a lack of storage capacity requires Albania to sell its generated power during peak months of production.

What is Albania's energy sector strategy?

In 2018, Albania adopted its National Energy Sector Strategy, which examined various energy development scenarios and set forth a series of key indicators and objectives that will shape Albanian's energy sector over the period from 2018 to 2030 (Table 2). Most notably, the strategy stipulated a 42% share of renewable energy in the TPES by 2030.

Should Albania's energy mix include more renewables?

While Albania's energy mix already features one of the highest shares of renewables in the region owing to its extensive installed hydropower capacity, the essential need remains for a more secure, cost-competitive national energy supply. Diversifying the electricity mix to include more renewables would strengthen Albania's energy security.

How much energy does Albania need to save?

According to these, Albania needs to achieve a 52 per cent share of renewables in gross final consumption of energy. To boost energy efficiency and energy savings, it also needs to cap primary energy consumption at 2.6 Mtoe and final energy consumption at 2.4 Mtoe by 2030.
