

Buenos Aires Station Outdoor Base Station

Overview

Where is the Constitución train station in Buenos Aires?

Constitución Train Station is located in the Constitución neighborhood of Buenos Aires, making it close to key areas such as San Telmo, Centro, and Monserrat.

Where is the most important train station in Buenos Aires?

The most important train station in Buenos Aires is the Estación Retiro, found within walking distance of Plaza San Martín. Three train lines converge here, taking passengers to destinations like Tigre, Tucumán and Córdoba. Buenos Aires in the early 20th century must have been the world's most exciting city, awash in wealth and optimism.

When did Buenos Aires start building a train station?

All over town, buildings of astounding elegance were sprouting up, from the Teatro Colón to the Palacio Paz, and in 1909, construction began on a train station in Retiro. With French stylings and a steel frame built in Liverpool, the Estación Retiro was representative of Buenos Aires' European obsession.

How do trains work in Buenos Aires?

With an expansive line, trains in Buenos Aires connect the busy urban environment with surrounding tranquil suburbs and distant scenic locales. Visitors will find that these trains provide a comfortable, efficient, and often picturesque alternative to Buenos Aires' other modes of transport such as buses and taxis.
