

High-Pressure Folding Container Type for Wastewater Treatment Plants

Overview

What is a containerized wastewater treatment plant?

A containerized wastewater treatment plant is a wastewater treatment system that is fully integrated into a container. For uncomplicated and fast transportation, we use 10, 20 and 40-foot shipping containers in accordance with the international ISO standard for our KLARO container systems.

How can a containerized water treatment system help a large-scale reverse osmosis plant?

Take the difficulty out of large-scale reverse osmosis plants with containerized water treatment systems. By choosing pre-designed, module-sized plants, fully assembled in standard 20-ft and 40-ft containers with the option for a 10-ft as well, the complexity and construction of building water purification systems are no longer necessary.

What is a containerized water treatment system?

An advantageous aspect of containerized solutions is its function as a mobile water treatment system for different sites once a task is completed. These systems are made to be flexible and durable for use in any setting, and come equipped with many options. Some of the aspects that our mobile water treatment systems are designed to address include:

What is a containerized package plant?

Containerized Package Plants are a portable and efficient solution for water and wastewater treatment. They offer a plug-and-play option for remote locations, emergency response, or temporary needs, without compromising on treatment quality. These plants are designed to be potable and can be easily transported to new sites as necessary.
