

Highly reflective solar glass

Overview

---

What is highly reflective glass?

Highly reflective glass is created by applying a thin coating of metal oxides to the glass under a pyrolytic process creating a durable, stable coating to one face of the glass. The extremely durable nature of the reflective coating means that these solar reflective glass panels can be used as single glazing as well as insulated glass units.

Can solar reflective glass be used as a single glazing unit?

The extremely durable nature of the reflective coating means that these solar reflective glass panels can be used as single glazing as well as insulated glass units. With a silver reflective glass unit using clear glass, a light transmission of 56% can be maintained whilst creating a reflective external surface, with 37% light reflection.

What is photovoltaic smart glass?

Photovoltaic glass, also known as solar glass or transparent solar panels, is a type of smart glass that uses embedded photovoltaic cells to convert sunlight into electricity to generate electricity.

What is Photovoltaic Glass?

Unlike traditional solar panels that absorb visible light, photovoltaic glass converts primarily ultraviolet (UV) and infrared light into electricity, making it suitable for windows, facades and other transparent surfaces of buildings, vehicles and equipment.
