

Hungary Smart Photovoltaic Energy Storage Containerized Fixed Type

Overview

Can battery energy storage systems be co-located with solar power plants?

However, the inherent variability of solar power generation presents challenges for maintaining grid stability and ensuring a reliable electricity supply. To address these challenges, the development of battery energy storage systems (BESS) co-located with solar power plants (i.e. cable pooling) has become increasingly important.

Does Hungary have a regulatory framework for co-located Bess projects?

Historically, Hungary's regulatory framework did not provide clear guidelines for the integration of co-located BESS projects. This lack of specific regulation created uncertainty for investors and developers, hampering the widespread adoption of these energy storage solutions.

Does Hungarian law support co-located Bess systems?

While the concept of electricity storage was introduced into Hungarian law earlier, comprehensive policies to support the deployment of co-located BESS systems were lacking.

What is the Hungarian Electricity Act 2025?

The Hungarian Electricity Act was amended in early 2025 to include regulations concerning the shared use of producer lines and grid connection points by multiple power plants or BESS systems, each with a nominal capacity of at least 0.5 MW and owned by different entities.
