

Introduction to outdoor wireless base stations in mobile halls

Overview

What is a mobile base station?

A mobile base station, also called a base transceiver station (BTS), is a fixed radio transceiver in any mobile communication network or wide area network (WAN). The base station connects mobile devices to the network and routes them to other terminals in the network or to the core network of a mobile operator. Read more Explore Mobile base.

Do mobile phones need a base station?

Mobile phones and other mobile devices require a network of base stations in order to function. The base station antennas transmit and receive RF (radio frequency) signals, or radio waves, to and from mobile phones near the base station. Without these radio waves, mobile communications would not be possible.

Why are base stations an inevitability?

These types of objects are an inevitability since they serve the purpose of providing signal transfer for data and voice between mobile mobiles. The idea of base stations is anchored in their function to provide coverage, capacity, and connectivity, hence allowing for extending the working capabilities of mobile phones and other radio gear.

Why are base stations important in cellular communication?

Base stations are important in the cellular communication as it facilitate seamless communication between mobile devices and the network communication. The demand for efficient data transmission are increased as we are advancing towards new technologies such as 5G and other data intensive applications.
