

Rwanda Uninterruptible Power Supply Project

Overview

Can Rwanda build a reliable electricity supply?

The energy sector analysis was conducted for Rwanda's projected electricity demand and supply for 2030 and 2050 under the R-1.5°C pathway. It was found that Rwanda can cost-effectively build a reliable electricity supply based on local power generation with a high proportion of solar and wind power.

Who are the energy sub-sectors in Rwanda?

The various energy sub-sectors include the following: Power Shift Africa and the University of Technology Sydney (UTS) developed a comprehensive energy pathway for Rwanda that is aligned with the Paris Climate Agreement goals and builds on Rwanda's Energy Policy 2015 plan.

How will renewables affect Rwanda's Energy Supply?

All three sectors will reduce fuel cost over time because electricity generation is based on renewables – with significant shares of solar and wind power. However, increased electrification will lead to higher investment costs in power generation and higher overall electricity supply costs for Rwanda.
